Are you considering or developing a career working with children or young people?

Are you looking for a formal qualification to enhance your prospects?

A Foundation Degree in Integrated Practice is just what you need!

in association with

Edge Hill University

This qualification is aimed at people who work in or are looking to work in the voluntary sectors, schools, children's centres or nurseries as play leaders, learning mentors or support workers, seeking professional development and qualifications for career progression. It will also offer an identified programme for school leavers who wish to pursue a career working with children or young people.

The Foundation Degree has been designed to enable you to progress and further develop skills to build more integrated services organised around the needs of children and young people.

Mode of Study

The programme is offered on a modular basis over two years with an optional exit point at the end of year one, modules within this pathway allow for flexible learning accessed on a part time basis.

The Foundation Degree will enable students to progress to BSc [Hons] Health and Social Care [Child and Family Pathway]
