Progress your career!

In partnership with...

The Greater Merseyside and West Lancashire Lifelong Learning Network (LLN) is playing a vital role in improving access to higher education for EVERYONE.

Working in partnership with Edge Hill University, the University of Liverpool, the Open University and several further education colleges across the region, the LLN provides access to full-time, part-time and short course qualifications in a range of subject areas including:

- Health and Social Care
- Creative Industries
- Tourism, Hospitality, Sport and Active Leisure
- Financial Services
